OUR NEW ORGANIST—JEREMY JELINEK

Greetings! First and foremost, let me express how happy I am to work directly with JC Cantrell, and also with Fr. Bede, Fr. Hyacinth, and the entire staff. I am even more grateful to uphold the responsibility of serving you in prayer through music. After a generous introduction previously posted in the bulletin, I'd like to share some additional things that contribute to my life's work.

In addition to my work here, I am an Assisting Organist at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, playing weekday organ Masses. After graduating from the Eastman School of Music in Spring 2018, I explored an interest in the medical field, fulfilling a position as Intern/Medical Assistant in Neuropsychiatry, and was then accepted to Georgetown University to pursue a Post-Baccalaureate Pre-Medical program. After extensive discernment, I confirmed that music is my true devotion. I continue to perform, to study, and to build up my repertoire.

We have an exciting Organ Renovation Project underway; please be attentive for concerts and relevant events. If you would like to learn more about the treasured 1885 Roosevelt organ, please approach me; I'd be more than happy to show you around the organ loft. I look forward to meeting all of you.

ST. JEROME—SEPTEMBER 30

St. Jerome is frequently remembered for his bad temper! It is true that he had a very bad temper and could use a vitriolic pen, but his love for God and his son Jesus Christ was extraordinarily intense; anyone who taught error was an enemy of God and truth, and Saint Jerome went after him or her with his mighty and sometimes sarcastic pen.

Saint Jerome is particularly important for having made a translation of the Bible which came to be called the Vulgate. It is not the most critical edition of the Bible, but its acceptance by the Church was fortunate. The Council of Trent called for a new and corrected edition of the Vulgate, and declared it the authentic text to be used in the Church.

He traveled extensively in Palestine, marking each spot of Christ's life with an outpouring of devotion. Mystic that he was, he spent five years in the desert of Chalcis so that he might give himself up to prayer, penance, and study. Finally, he settled in Bethlehem, where he lived in the cave believed to have been the birthplace of Christ. Jerome died in Bethlehem, and the remains of his body now lie buried in the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome.

St. Jerome is patron saint of librarians, translators and scholars.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Woe to the complacent, stretched comfortably on their couches! (Amos 6:1a, 4-7).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146)

Second Reading — Pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness (1 Timothy 6:11-16).

Gospel — There was a rich man who dined sumptuously each day. Lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31).

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers and communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food for the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.
