ST. ANTHONY MARY CLARET

The “spiritual father of Cuba” was a missionary, religious founder, social reformer, queen’s chaplain, writer and publisher, archbishop, and refugee. He was a Spaniard whose work took him to the Canary Islands, Cuba, Madrid, Paris, and to the First Vatican Council.

In his spare time as weaver and designer in the textile mills of Barcelona, Anthony learned Latin and printing: The future priest and publisher was preparing. Ordained at 28, he was prevented by ill health from entering religious life as a Carthusian or as a Jesuit, but went on to become one of Spain’s most popular preachers.

Anthony spent 10 years giving popular missions and retreats, always placing great emphasis on the Eucharist and devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It was said that his rosary was never out of his hand. At age 42, he founded a religious institute of missionaries beginning with five young priests, known today as the Claretians.

Anthony was appointed to head the much-neglected archdiocese of Santiago in Cuba. He began its reform by almost ceaseless preaching and hearing of confessions, and suffered bitter opposition mainly for opposing concubinage and giving instruction to black slaves. A hired assassin—whose release from prison Anthony had obtained—slashed open his face and wrist. Anthony succeeded in getting the would-be assassin’s death sentence commuted to a prison term. His solution for the misery of Cubans was family-owned farms producing a variety of foods for the family’s own needs and for the market. This invited the enmity of the vested interests who wanted everyone to work on a single cash crop—sugar. Besides all his religious writings are two books he wrote in Cuba: Reflections on Agriculture and Country Delights.

He was recalled to Spain for a job he did not relish—being chaplain for the queen. Anthony went on three conditions: He would reside away from the palace; he would come only to hear the queen’s confession and instruct the children; and he would be exempt from court functions. In the revolution of 1868, he fled to Paris with the queen’s party, where he preached to the Spanish colony.

All his life Anthony was interested in the Catholic press. He founded the Religious Publishing House, a major Catholic publishing venture in Spain, and wrote or published 200 books and pamphlets.

At Vatican I, where he was a staunch defender of the doctrine of infallibility, Anthony won the admiration of his fellow bishops. Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore remarked of him, “There goes a true saint.” At the age of 63, he died in exile near the border of Spain.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight (Exodus 17:8-13).

Psalms — Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth (Psalm 121).

Second Reading — Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed (2 Timothy 3:14 — 4:2).

Gospel — Will not God secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? (Luke 18:1-8).

PERSISTENCE

Today’s readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God’s passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

LOOKING FOR WORK?

Dear Parishioners – The Archdiocese of Washington is hiring! They are seeking those who are experienced in accounting, bookkeeping, payroll and human resources to work in Parish offices throughout the Archdiocese.

The work is interesting and the hours are flexible if needed. What a beautiful way to serve our Lord through your talents! Kindly send your resume to russl@adw.org or if you have any questions.

POOR BOX

Donations to the parish Poor Box can be made by using the envelope in your packet, Faith Direct, dropping it off at the parish office, or by giving it to one of the priests. Your generosity enables the parish to assist the poor with grocery cards, rent assistance, utility assistance, etc.

COATS FOR KIDS

Cold weather is almost upon us and St. Dominic is again partnering with the Knights of Columbus for the “Coats for Kids” program.

We will be distributing new, good quality coats to children in the Southwest/Southeast neighborhood in November. Last year, our parish raised $3,000 for the program.

You may donate by using Faith Direct or by writing “Coats for Kids” in the memo line of a check or on an envelope.

CHURCH HISTORY

Hilborne and Frank Roosevelt (relatives of Teddy and Franklin Roosevelt) operated the Roosevelt Organ Works from 1872 to 1893. In 1887, the Roosevelt Organ Works installed an organ in St. Dominic's Church, tuning it especially for the superb acoustics of its intended space. In terms of its musical quality, it is tonally unchanged more than a century later, thus being a rarity among the few surviving Roosevelt organs.- Courtesy of Mary Moran.

WITH THANKS TO ALL LAY MINISTERS

Every week/weekend, our Lay Ministers of the Mass serve our parish. At each Mass, these volunteers attend the needs of all as they greet (Ushers), serve at the altar (Acolytes), proclaim the Word (Lectors), assist in distributing communion (Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion) and lead our sung prayer (Music Ministers). Whether daily/weekend celebrations in ordinary time, or special event liturgies such as the chant Mass for the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary and next weekend's Centennial Celebrations, we all benefit from their prayerful, prayer-enhancing service.

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION LAY MINISTERS NEEDED

The Feast of All Saints will be celebrated at the Vigil Mass on Thursday, October 31 (5pm) and all masses on Friday, November 1st (8am, 12:10pm and 7pm). Lay Ministers are needed to serve as Acolytes, Lectors, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) at all Masses. If you are available, please volunteer for one of the many vacancies using the MSP web page or smartphone app.

Please contact JC Cantrell thru the Parish Office or by e-mail at music@stdominicchurch.org if you need assistance or have questions regarding the schedule.

WORSHIP

We are blessed by the presence of many visitors and guests each week. Out of solemn respect for the Mass, we follow the custom of remaining at our places within the church until the conclusion of the Song for Sending Forth (recessional).

Please silence your cell phone: As an overt act of courtesy (and respect for the prayer of all), please silence/ turn off your cell phone when you arrive in the church.

Sung Mass Responses: Our community's sung and spoken responses during the ritual prayers of the liturgy are a core element of our communal prayer.

- All weekend masses will be singing the responses of the Community Mass which may be found starting on page 14 of the insert attached to the front cover of the (tan and green) Breaking Bread Book.
