PROVERBS 24

The Proverbs 24 Community (P24) is a multi-parish pro-life initiative that holds monthly witness and prayer events.

Their next events will be on two Saturdays: March 21st & April 18th at Holy Comforter St. Cyprian Catholic Church from 10:30am—12:30pm. Please consider participating on these days in one of three ways: praying on the sidewalk in front of the Planned Parenthood, praying a holy hour at church while the sidewalk witness is happening, or preparing a meal for all participants upon the conclusion of the holy hour. There is street parking, and it is walkable from the Stadium-Armory or Potomac Avenue Metro stations. The church address is 1357 East Capitol Street, SE, Washington, DC. Check their website p24community.weebly.com for more information or email p24community@gmail.com.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FOOD DRIVE

The next collection for the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry will be the weekend of March 22nd & 23rd. Please make sure your items are unopened and have not expired.

Food items will be distributed to our neighbors in the Southwest and Southeast communities.

There will also be an Archdiocese of Washington Lenten Food Pantry collection taking place the weekend of March 28th & 29th. This collection will also be given to the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry.

ST. CYRIL OF JERUSALEM – SAINT FOR MARCH 18TH

The crises that the Church faces today may seem minor when compared with the threat posed by the Arian heresy, which denied the divinity of Christ and almost overcame Christianity in the fourth century. Cyril was to be caught up in the controversy, accused of Arianism by Saint Jerome, and ultimately vindicated both by the men of his own time and by being declared a Doctor of the Church in 1822.

Raised in Jerusalem and well-educated, especially in the Scriptures, he was ordained a priest by the bishop of Jerusalem and given the task during Lent of catechizing those preparing for Baptism and catechizing the newly baptized during the Easter season. His “Catecheses” remain valuable as examples of the ritual and theology of the Church in the mid-fourth century.

There are conflicting reports about the circumstances of his becoming bishop of Jerusalem. It is certain that he was validly consecrated by bishops of the province. Since one of them was an Arian, Acacius, it may have been expected that his “cooperation” would follow. Conflict soon rose between Cyril and Acacius, bishop of the rival nearby see of Caesarea. Cyril was summoned to a council, accused of insubordination and of selling Church property to relieve the poor. Probably, however, a theological difference was also involved. He was condemned, driven from Jerusalem, and later vindicated, not without some association with and help from Semi-Arians. Half his episcopate was spent in exile; his first experience was repeated twice. He finally returned to find Jerusalem torn with heresy, schism and strife, and wracked with crime. Even Saint Gregory of Nyssa, who was sent to help, left in despair.

They both went to the Council of Constantinople, where the amended form of the Nicene Creed was promulgated in 381. Cyril accepted the word “consubstantial”—that is, Christ is of the same substance or nature as the Father. Some said it was an act of repentance, but the bishops of the Council praised him as a champion of orthodoxy against the Arians. Though not friendly with the greatest defender of orthodoxy against the Arians, Cyril may be counted among those whom Athanasius called “brothers, who mean what we mean, and differ only about the word “consubstantial.”

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — When the people grumbled to Moses for water in the desert, the Lord heard and brought forth water from the rock for all to drink (Exodus 17:3-7).

Psalms — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:1-2, 5-8).

Gospel — Ask, and you will be given living water so that you will never thirst again (John 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42]).

THIRST

Each time today’s Gospel story is read, I can’t help but think of the many television commercials I’ve seen depicting perspiring athletes lifting a beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ideas about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for the flowing water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how he, and he alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know that only the Lord can satisfy these thirsts.

— SOLEMN MASS FOR ST JOSEPH —

CHANT CHOIR WILL SING FOR THIS FEAST MASS

This year the parishes of St. Dominic Church and St. Joseph of Capitol Hill will join together to celebrate a Solemn High Mass for the Feast of St. Joseph (7:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 19th).

All singers who are available to sing with the Chant Choir are invited to meet at 6:00 p.m. in the Church to review and rehearse the music to be sung for the Solemn High Mass.

Choristers who contact the Parish Music Director in advance will receive an advance digital copy of the Chant Choir score for their personal preparation. Please contact JC Cantrell thru the Parish Office or by e-mail for more information at music@stdominicchurch.org.

FOR THOSE WITH HEARING IMPEDIMENT

The parish has a number of personal listening system receivers with earbuds for use at the Mass. Please inform a Music Minister (Director or Cantor) if you would like to use one of the receivers, and it will be provided. Please return the receiver to the Music Director after Mass so that it is available for others.

POOR BOX

Donations to the parish Poor Box can be made by using the envelope in your packet, Faith Direct, dropping it off at the parish office, or by giving it to one of the priests. Your generosity enables the parish to assist the poor with grocery cards, rent assistance, utility assistance, etc.

CHURCH HISTORY

The 24 large windows along the walls of the church, as well as the windows of the chapels and the rear balcony window ("Under Our Lady's Mantle") were designed by the internationally renowned Edward W. Heimer family and produced in 1965 by Heimer and Company Stained Glass Studio in Clifton, New Jersey.

LEAVE A LEGACY

Please remember St. Dominic Church in your will and estate planning. Your thoughtfulness will enable the parish to maintain its presence, ministry and outreach in Southwest Washington.

ATTENTION WEEKDAY AND WEEKEND ACOLYTES, LECTORS, USHERS, AND EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Substitute Lectors, Acolytes, EMHCs and Ushers are frequently needed at weekday and weekend Masses. If you are able to fill a vacancy, please use the MSP website or app to volunteer.

The Sacred Liturgies of Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday always benefit from the support of our Parish Lay Ministers. Many of the weekend and Triduum liturgies have vacancies — for example, additional acolytes could be used at all weekend Masses and Triduum liturgies.

Please contact JC Cantrell if you have any questions related to the liturgies and Masses for Palm Sunday, Triduum or Easter Sunday. JC's email is: music@stdominicchurch.org.

WORSHIP

We are blessed by the presence of many visitors and guests each week. Out of solemn respect for the Mass, we follow the custom of remaining at our places within the church until the conclusion of the Song for Sending Forth (recessional).

Please silence your cell phone: As an overt act of courtesy (and respect for the prayer of all), please remember to silence/ turn off your cell phone when you arrive in the church.

Sung Mass Prayers and Responses: Our community's sung and spoken responses during the ritual prayers of the liturgy are a core element of communal prayer.

- During the Season of Lent, all Masses will use the sung responses of the Missa Simplex.
 - The Missa Simplex responses are found on pages 2-5 of the insert attached to the inside cover of the Purple Breaking Bread book as well as in the Blue Hymnal (#133-#140).
- In keeping with Catholic liturgical instructions, the Gloria is omitted for non-Feast Day Masses in the Season of Lent.
