MARK YOUR CALENDAR

JUBILARIAN MASS

Join us at the 10:30am Mass on Sunday, April 28th as our own Fr. Matthew Rzczkowski, OP is the celebrant at his Jubilarian (50th year) Mass.

This is our opportunity to thank him for his years of service to the St. Dominic Parish and Priory and the Dominican Order.

Fr. Matthew helps the parish by hearing confessions on Saturdays, Sundays and on special occasions. In previous years, Fr. Matthew spent time at the Apostolic Nunciature and was a librarian at the Dominican House of Studies here in Washington, D.C.

We are so grateful for his service and we're happy to host him for his 50th Anniversary.

WELCOME TO OUR NEW ARCHBISHOP

Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory was born December 7, 1947 in Chicago to Wilton Sr. and Ethel Duncan Gregory; he has two sisters, Elaine and Claudia. He attended St. Carthage Grammar School, where he converted to Catholicism. He attended Quigley Preparatory Seminary South, Niles College (now St. Joseph's College Seminary) of Loyola University and St. Mary of the Lake Seminary.

He was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago on May 9, 1973, and three years after his ordination began graduate studies at the Pontifical Liturgical Institute (Sant' Anselmo) in Rome. There he earned his doctorate in sacred liturgy in 1980.

After having served as an associate pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Glenview, IL as a member of the faculty of St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein and as a master of ceremonies to Cardinals John Cody and Joseph Bernardin, he was ordained an auxiliary bishop of Chicago on December 13, 1983. On February 10, 1994, he was installed as the seventh bishop of the Diocese of Belleville, IL where he served for the next eleven years. On December 9, 2004, Pope Saint John Paul II appointed Bishop Gregory as the sixth archbishop of the Archdiocese of Atlanta. He was installed on January 17, 2005.

Archbishop Gregory has served in many leading roles in the U.S. church. In November 2001, he was elected president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) following three years as vice president under Bishop Joseph Fiorenza of the Diocese of Galveston-Houston. During his tenure in office, the crisis of sex abuse by Catholic clergy escalated; and under his leadership, the bishops implemented the "Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People."

He has served on the USCCB's Executive and Administrative Committees, the Administrative Board, the Committee on Doctrine and the U.S. Catholic Conference Committee on International Policy. He previously served as the chairman of the Bishops' Committees on Personnel, Divine Worship and the Third Millennium/Jubilee Year 2000 from 1998-2001, and Liturgy from 1991-1993.

Archbishop Gregory has written extensively on church issues, including pastoral statements on the death penalty, euthanasia/physician-assisted suicide and has published numerous articles on the subject of liturgy, particularly in the African-American community.

In 2006 he joined an illustrious group of preachers with his induction into the Martin Luther King Board of Preachers at Morehouse College, Atlanta. At the National Pastoral Life Center in Washington, D.C., Archbishop Gregory was honored with the Cardinal Bernardin Award given by the Catholic Common Ground Initiative (2006).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).

Psalm — This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).

Second Reading — All who are baptized, set your hearts on heaven (Colossians 3:1-4).

Gospel — Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9).

HAPPY EASTER!

Happy Easter! Israel's Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus' Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens' Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism's waters to our family's Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, "Here comes everybody!" So in this Jubilee of Mercy, we make our own Saint John Chrysostom's Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: "Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent's beginning, and you who didn't fast at all, rejoice! The table's richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb!" Happy Easter! Blessed Pasch! Welcome, everybody!

Offertory Collection	4/14/2019	Unavailable
Capital Repair & Maint. Collection	4/14/2019	Unavailable

FOR THOSE WITH A HEARING IMPEDIMENT

The parish has a number of personal listening system receivers with earbuds for use at the Mass. Please inform a Music Minister (Director or Cantor) if you would like to use one of the receivers, and it will be provided. Please return the receiver to the Music Director after Mass so that it is available for others.

POOR BOX

Donations to the parish Poor Box can be made by using the envelope in your packet, Faith Direct, dropping it off at the parish office, or by giving it to one of the priests. Your generosity enables the parish to assist the poor with grocery cards, rent assistance, utility assistance, etc.

PARISH COMMUNITY

If you would like to have more opportunities to socialize with fellow parishioners, consider joining the Hospitality Committee. If you're interested, please contact Cecelia Daly at social@stdominicchurch.org, for more information.

FAITH DIRECT

Our parish's many ministries are examples of how many of you answer that call. Our ministries require not only gifts of time and talent, but also of financial help.

Please prayerfully consider supporting St. Dominic Church with electronic donations through Faith Direct. You can sign up online by visiting www.faithdirect.net using our church code: DC117.

CHURCH HISTORY

St. Antoninus's feast day is May 10th. The 6th double window on the north wall of the church features St. Antoninus (1389-1459) giving to the poor. St. Antoninus joined the Dominican Order when he was 16 years old. St. Antoninus taught that the state has a duty to govern for the common good.

SANCTUARY LAMP

Correction: The Sanctuary Lamp was lit in honor of Anthony Frank Fernandes the week of April 7th. Apologies for the incorrect listing.

EASTER TRIUMPH, EASTER JOYS

Easter Blessings to All – and many thanks to all our Parish Lay Ministers and Volunteers.

Over the past weeks, we have gathered for many liturgies, culminating in our parish observance of the Triduum and Easter Sunday. These celebrations would not have been possible without the dedicated service of our Lay Ministers of the Mass and our many other church volunteers. We are specifically grateful to the volunteers who helped clean and decorate the church and those volunteers that maintain the church grounds.

As the chair of the Worship Commission, and on behalf of the St Dominic Parish community, I thank each Acolyte, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Lector, Music Minister and Usher for their service to our parish and all their "visible and invisible" work that supports the preparation and celebration of all our liturgies.

For Holy Week 2019, we were additionally blessed by many additional volunteer Music Ministers who supported the singing and provided instrumental embellishment and accompaniment to our sung and spoken prayers.

Thank you to all volunteers including our dedicated leaders of our lay liturgical ministries who train and assist all who serve as volunteer Lay Ministers.

May our parish always be blessed with such volunteers. JC Cantrell, Director of Music, Liturgy and Liturgical Ministries.

WORSHIP

We are blessed by the presence of many visitors and guests each week. Out of solemn respect for the Mass, we follow the custom of remaining at our places within the church until the conclusion of the Song for Sending Forth (recessional).

Please silence your cell phone: As an overt act of courtesy (and respect for the prayer of all), please silence/ turn off your cell phone when you arrive in the church.

Sung Mass Responses: Our community's sung and spoken responses during the ritual prayers of the liturgy are a core element of our communal prayer. All of the responses for Easter weekend are printed in the worship programs available at each of the church entrances.
