BLESSED CENTENNIAL OF THE CONSECRATION OF OUR CHURCH

The debt incurred by the parish in its various building and rebuilding projects was finally paid off in 1919, which cleared the last obstacle for the consecration of the church. The 1919 history of the church states, "The consecration of a church is one of the most important events in the history of a parish--a consummation towards which every Catholic parish should look with keen interest." And so, after years of blessings and setbacks the parish was finally able to receive the sacred rites of consecration, which make the sacred purpose and status of the building perpetual.

The church was consecrated on October 10, 1919, by the Most Rev. John T. McNicholas, O.P., Bishop of Duluth and later Archbishop of Cincinnati. On Sunday, October 12, the Bishop Thomas Shahan, Rector of the Catholic University of America, celebrated a Solemn Pontifical Mass of Thanksgiving. Cardinal Gibbons, who was present for the dedication of the church in 1875, and who was now the ninth Archbishop of Baltimore, was also in attendance. Fr. Raymond Meagher, O.P., the current provincial and former pastor of St. Dominic Church, preached the sermon. Many other Dominicans and local clergy were also present. The crowds were overflowing, and the joy palpable.

What a joy it is to celebrate 100 years of the church being consecrated this weekend. It is a chance to be renewed in appreciation of our history, of God's favor upon our parish, and in our faith. We are so grateful for the support and presence of Archbishop Wilton Gregory at our dinner celebration at the Museum of the Bible, and of our provincial, Fr. Ken Letoile, OP at both the dinner and the Centennial Mass, and of Fr. George Schommer, OP, our former pastor who did so much for our parish. A blessed centennial of our consecration to all of you!

-in Jesus, Mary, and Dominic,

Fr. Hyacinth

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint (Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18).

Psalm — The Lord hears the cry of the poor (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — The Lord will rescue me from every threat (2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18).

Gospel — All who exalt themselves will be humbled; all who humble themselves will be exalted (Luke 18:9-14).

RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

Today's readings invite us into prayer, into relationship with God. Because relationships feel more natural when we know one another well, Sirach encourages us to know God better. In his wisdom, Sirach tells us what God is like: fair, open-minded, compassionate, and attentive. "The Lord will not delay," he says. Knowing that God's help comes right on time, whenever we need it, calms our hearts and helps us trust the Lord. In his second Letter to Timothy, Saint Paul demonstrates his own trust in God. Despite the grueling struggles Saint Paul has faced because of his Christian faith, he praises the Lord for rescuing him time and again. Today's Gospel draws us close to Jesus too, revealing his special love for the poor and humble. As Jesus tells his parable about the prayer habits of a Pharisee and a tax collector, our hearts long to become as gentle as Christ's.

STRING QUINTET "CENTENARIUS"

Saturday (October 26) night's Centennial Dinner at the Museum of the Bible included a slide-show movie of historical photos related to the parish accompanied by the world premiere performance of the String Quintet Centenarius. Centenarius was commissioned specifically for the centennial celebrations of the consecration of our church. The piece is based in part on ancient Dominican Chants and other liturgical music as a meditation on the solemnity and joy surrounding our centennial and the evolution of our Southwest DC Parish Community.

The movie with a recording of Centenarius will be added to our Parish website (available for download).

POOR BOX

Donations to the parish Poor Box can be made by using the envelope in your packet, Faith Direct, dropping it off at the parish office, or by giving it to one of the priests. Your generosity enables the parish to assist the poor with grocery cards, rent assistance, utility assistance, etc.

COATS FOR KIDS

Cold weather is almost upon us and St. Dominic is again partnering with the Knights of Columbus for the "Coats for Kids" program.

We will be distributing new, good quality coats to children in the Southwest/Southeast neighborhood in November. Last year, our parish raised $3,000 for the program.

You may donate by using Faith Direct or by writing "Coats for Kids" in the memo line of a check or on an envelope.

Please silence your cell phone: As an overt act of courtesy (and respect for the prayer of all), please silence/ turn off your cell phone when you arrive in the church.

Sung Mass Responses: Our community's sung and spoken responses during the ritual prayers of the liturgy are a core element of our communal prayer.

- All weekend Masses will be singing the responses of the Community Mass which may be found starting on page 14 of the insert attached to the front cover of the (tan and green) Breaking Bread Book.
