PASTORAL CORNER

Hello again! As I'm sure you've noticed, we have a few changes to the bulletin! We received a new contract with a different publisher and they offered us an extra page and full color at no charge. We'll be playing with the layout and formatting in the coming weeks.

We also have quite a few changes on the website. If you have not perused it in a while, there's a lot to see. On the home page we've added the Sunday readings and Mass times as well as the upcoming events, so you can get the week's info all at once. We've also added a few new pages:

1. The Roosevelt Organ: We created a page to highlight the historical organ here at St. Dominic's. There's information about the history, the ongoing restoration/renovation project, and even a few videos of the organ in action. Check it out at www.stdominicchurch.org/roosevelt-organ
2. The Stained Glass Windows: As you see every time you're at the church, we have amazing stained glass windows. Mary Moran created a beautiful book years ago detailing the windows and the stories they represent. We were able to add the images and stories of the windows right to the website. You can see those at www.stdominicchurch.org/stained-glass-windows
3. History: We have such a great history here at St. Dominic Church. We're working on updating the history page on the website as well including some great historical photos from Mary Moran's book on our history. Visit the history page at www.stdominicchurch.org/history

There will be plenty more updates in the coming months—stay tuned!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. (Wisdom 7:7-11).

Psalm — Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy! (Psalm 90).

Second Reading — Indeed the word of God is living and effective (Hebrews 4:12-13).

Gospel — It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God (Mark 10:17-30 [17-27]).

WORDS OF WISDOM

The spirit of wisdom, as we discover in today's first reading, comes to those who pray for her. Wisdom, like the word of God, carries a message of consolation as well as of great challenge. The Letter to the Hebrews tells us that the word of God, infused with the wisdom of God, is "sharper than any two-edged sword." We cannot shrink from the wisdom of God, or from the word that has the power to penetrate our hearts and minds. Jesus, the living word of God, the embodiment of wisdom, has strong, deeply penetrating words for the rich young man who comes to him seeking answers to his most profound questions. Just when the young man thought he had done enough to fulfill God's commands, more was asked of him. This is no less true for us.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

SOCIAL JUSTICE

St. Dominic Church will again partner with the Knights of Columbus to provide new, good quality children's coats for low-income families. Each coat costs about $20. You may donate through faithdirect.org or using the collection basket and writing Coats for Kids in the check's subject line or on the envelope.

We are collecting new toys for the DC police Christmas party for children who live in shelters in the First District, which includes St. Dominic Church. Please bring the toys to the church by December 2nd, which is early, but we need to deliver the toys for the December 8th Christmas party. We will put up the Christmas tree on November 4th..

CHURCH HISTORY

Thanks to everyone who helped clean the church on Saturday. The next cleaning will be after the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Saturday, November 10th. New volunteers are always welcome.

History: St. Martin de Porres (1579-1639) is the patron saint of work for international justice and harmony. The 3rd double window on the south side of the church depicts him healing a sick child as his worried mother looks on. The broom on the left reminds us that St. Martin de Porres considered all work sacred, no matter how menial. We celebrate his feast day on November 3rd. -

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO SERVE AS LAY MINISTERS OF THE MASS

On Sunday, October 21st, Bishop Fisher will Preside at the 10:30 a.m. Mass, and formally install Fr. Hyacinth as Pastor of St Dominic Parish. We are inviting all singers to participate in a combined music ministry for this celebration. For more information, please talk with or contact our Parish Director of Music and Liturgy, JC Cantrell. He is available after most Masses and can easily be reached by e-mail: music@stdominicchurch.org

ATTENTION WEEKDAY AND WEEKEND ACOLYTES, LECTORS, USHERS, AND EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

The Lay Minister of the Mass schedule for Advent and Christmas Season Masses will be drafted very soon. Please review your personal calendars and update your MSP Profile with any dates you are not available to serve so that the scheduling system correctly assigns volunteers.

REMINDER: December 24th falls on a Monday this year. Sunday, December 23rd (4th Sunday of Advent) will have the "normal Sunday" schedule of Masses. We recognize many will travel that weekend (with Christmas falling on a Tuesday).

Please use the MSP smartphone app or website to update your profile, and to review openings in the current schedule. Volunteer whenever you are available.

Please contact JC Cantrell thru the Parish Office or by e-mail music@stdominicchurch.org if you need assistance or have questions regarding the schedule.

WORSHIP

We are blessed by the presence of many visitors and guests each week. Out of solemn respect for the Mass, we follow the custom of remaining at our places within the church until the conclusion of the Song for Sending Forth (recessional).

Please silence your cell phone: As an overt act of courtesy (and respect for the prayer of all), please silence/ turn off your cell phone when you arrive in the church.

Sung Mass Responses: Our community's sung and spoken responses during the ritual prayers of the liturgy are a core element of our communal prayer.

- At the weekend masses supported by our organist, we are singing the Sienna Chant Mass responses which are found in the Blue Hymnal (#149 -#154) starting with the Kyrie (#149). The other mass parts follow the Kyrie.
- At the masses supported by our Ensemble, we are singing the Gloria found on page 2 of the insert attached to the front cover of the tan Breaking Bread Book, and the Mass of Creation responses (found in the Breaking Bread Book – #879-882)

POOR BOX

Donations to the parish Poor Box can be made by using the envelope in your packet, Faith Direct, dropping it off at the parish office, or by giving it to one of the priests. Your generosity enables the parish to assist the poor with grocery cards, rent assistance, utility assistance, etc.

FAITH DIRECT

Our parish's many ministries are examples of how many of you answer that call. Our ministries require not only gifts of time and talent, but also of financial help.

Please prayerfully consider supporting St. Dominic Church with electronic donations through Faith Direct. You can sign up online by visiting www.faithdirect.net using our church code: DC117.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!
