CHURCH HISTORY

Christ appeared to Catherine of Siena (1347-80) and offered her two crowns: one of gold, signifying earthly honors, and the other of thorns, denoting suffering, contempt, and failure. Catherine chose the later and the 1st double window on the north side of the church depicts Christ's rewarding her with the sacred marks of stigmata. The Feast of Catherine of Siena is celebrated on April 29th.

"The Art of Dying"

What does it mean to 'die well'?

Physician and medical ethicist L. S. Dugdale M.D., MAR, states that far too many of us die poorly, supported by a culture that has overly medicalized the end of life.

Dr. Dugdale offers a hopeful perspective on the art of dying well, starting with the art of living well with a view to the endgame.
