CHURCH HISTORY

The windows of Sts. Peter and Paul may be seen in the main vestibule in the back of the church. Saints Peter and Paul appeared to St. Dominic in a vision and authorized him to preach with apostolic zeal and authenticity. St. Peter is holding the keys given to him by Christ and St. Paul holds the sword that beheaded him. Also note the upside down cross on the bottom left of St. Peter's window, symbolizing his martyrdom. The armor above St. Paul's head is a reference to Paul's letter to the Ephesians (6:11).
