CHURCH HISTORY

In 1806, James Barry, whose house was located at what is now Half and P Streets SW, built a chapel dedicated to St. Mary, in part as a gift to his neighbors. The chapel was abandoned, fell into disuse and allowed to decay. The cornerstone of the Barry Chapel was rescued and can be viewed in the south (Frontage Road/accessible) entrance of the church on the right as you walk in the door. ~ Courtesy of Mary Moran

ST. ANSELM & MASS INTENTIONS

St. Anselm declares that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrations for the same intention after death.
