INTRODUCTIONS AND WELCOME TO PAUL CAMPBELL—PARISH ORGANIST

Last week our Pastor introduced and welcomed Paul Campbell, who is now our Parish Organist.

Paul is a skilled organist, sensitive to the needs of congregational singing and a fine soloist. He also brings a unique combination of skills and education which will provide subject-matter expertise and advice regarding the completion of the Roosevelt Organ refurbishment.

Paul has seven years' experience as an assisting organist for the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception and simultaneously served six years as the Assistant to the Music Director at the Cathedral of St Matthew the Apostle. He also served as Organist and Music Director for Sacred Heart Parish in Winchester, Virginia as well as a substitute organist for many churches in the region. Paul completed his Bachelors in Organ Performance (Catholic University of America, 2012) Cum Laude. He recently returned from a one-year sabbatical where he served as a volunteer with the Taizé Community in France.

We welcome Paul to our Parish, and we know he will make valuable contributions to our parish music ministry and community.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — When the wicked turn away from their wickedness they have committed and do what is right, they shall surely live (Ezekiel 18:25-28).

Psalm — Remember your mercies, O Lord (Psalm 25).

Second Reading — Consider others as better than yourselves; look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others (Philippians 2:1-11 [1-5]).

Gospel — Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you (Matthew 21:28-32).

INSIGHTS

People complain God isn't "fair," and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates, and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right, and live. "Actions speak louder than words." A fresh new insight? Hardly..

Paul tells the Philippians that he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others' interests and not their own. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." A novel idea? I don't think so.

In Jesus' story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows that the one who said he wouldn't work—but did—is way ahead of the one who said he would work—but didn't. "Talk is cheap." Heard that before?
