PASTOR'S CORNER

As we approach the great observance of Christmas, the Gospel reading for the Mass today directs our attention to the role of St. Joseph in God's plan of salvation. We see that St. Joseph is not an idle bystander in the welcome given to the Son of God. St.

Joseph, like Mary his bride, must enter into the mystery of the Incarnation that will directly impact his life. He is given the unique vocation of being the husband of Mary and asked to assume the role of human fatherhood for the child to be born. We can only imagine the wonderment of St. Joseph as he, like Mary, ponders what all of these events in their young married life might mean.

As a man of faith in the promises of God, St. Joseph is obedient and "did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him." This obedience firmly establishes a human family for the child to be born. St. Joseph welcomes Mary into his home, and doing so, he welcomes also the Divine Child within her womb. For this new family, faith and trust in God become active in every dimension of their lives.

Each of us, through faith, is invited to welcome the Lord Jesus into our lives. We have heard the promises of God and we have received the testimony of the Evangelists and Apostles that God has indeed come to dwell among us to save us from sin and eternal death. We may wonder, at times, what this act of faith might mean and what will be the impact in our lives as we welcome Christ as Lord and Savior. We may even hesitate and question if we are doing the right thing. But, God is calling each of us to participate in his ongoing work of salvation in our own souls and in the lives of other people. He is inviting us to embark upon a life of faith and trust in God's will for our lives. Certainly, the welcoming of Christ into our lives is a reception of a great gift from God to us. In gratitude for this gift, we give to God the obedience of our lives and share in the joy of his presence within our hearts. We will never be the same.

The celebration of Christmas is a time when many families are reunited, if only for a short time. There are expressions of love, joy, and hospitality that enhance the bond shared by blood or marriage. St. Dominic Church is the family parish for many people and we welcome all those who come home for Christmas. Please reach out to your family members and friends and invite them to participate in one of our Christmas Masses. Bring them with you; offer to pick them up. The gift you give them may well be the occasion to encounter the living Lord.

History: The 5th double window on the north side of the church features St. Raymond of Peñafort (1175-1275), whose feast day is celebrated on January 7th. The window illustrates a scene when, according to Dominican tradition, he once rebuked the king of Aragon for his immoral behavior. He was unable to leave the island of Majorca to return to Spain because the king forbade sailors to give him passage. St. Raymond placed his cappa, the black mantle of the Dominican habit, on the water, stepped on it, and floated to the mainland.
