THE STORY BEHIND THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, historically known by its Latin name, Corpus Christi, celebrates the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. It is traditionally celebrated on the Thursday following the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. The feast dates to the Middle Ages and originated with a visionary nun and a Eucharistic miracle.

In 1263 a German priest, Fr. Peter of Prague, made a pilgrimage to Rome. He stopped in Bolsena, Italy, to celebrate Mass at the Church of St. Christina. At the time he was having doubts about Jesus being truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. He was affected by the growing debate among certain theologians who, for the first time in the history of the Church, began introducing doubts about the Body and Blood of Christ being actually present in the consecrated bread and wine. In response to his doubt, when he recited the prayer of consecration as he celebrated the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, blood started seeping from the consecrated host and onto the altar and corporal.

Fr. Peter reported this miracle to Pope Urban IV, who at the time was nearby in Orvieto. The pope sent delegates to investigate and ordered that host and blood-stained corporal be brought to Orvieto. The relics were then placed in the Cathedral of Orvieto, where they remain today.

This Eucharistic Miracle confirmed the visions given to St. Juliana of Mont Cornillon in Belgium (1193-1258). St. Juliana was a nun and mystic who had a series of visions in which she was instructed by Our Lord to work to establish a liturgical feast for the Holy Eucharist, to which she had a great devotion.

After many years of trying, she finally convinced the bishop, the future Pope Urban IV, to create this special feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, where none had existed before. Soon after her death, Pope Urban instituted Corpus Christi for the Universal Church and celebrated it for the first time in Orvieto in 1264, a year after the Eucharistic Miracle in Bolsena.

Inspired by the miracle, Pope Urban commissioned a Dominican friar, St. Thomas Aquinas, to compose the Mass and Office for the feast of Corpus Christi. Aquinas' hymns in honor of the Holy Eucharist, Pange Lingua, Tantum Ergo, Panis Angelicus, and O Salutaris Hostia are the beloved hymns the Church sings on the feast of Corpus Christi as well as throughout the year during Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Melchizedek brought out bread and wine and blessed Abram (Genesis 14:18-20).

Psalm — You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek (Psalm 110).

Second Reading — Paul gives his description of the institution of the Eucharist (1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

Gospel — Jesus spoke to the crowd about the Kingdom of God and then fed them with five loaves and two fish (Luke 9:11b-17).

MELCHIZEDEK & JESUS

Jesus parallels the Old Testament priest Melchizedek. Melchizedek is both a priest and a king. He is king of "Salem," which means peace, and which is the future "Jerusalem." His name means "king of righteousness" in Hebrew. He is greater than Abraham, since he blesses Abraham (Gen 14:19-20; Heb 7:6-10). David is considered a priest "according to the order of Melchizedek" (Ps 110:4). Melchizedek is eternal-like, since he seems to come from nowhere and returns to nowhere (Heb 7:3). His sacrifice, curiously, consists in the offering of bread and wine (Gen 14:18). Jesus, as the New David, is also a priest "according to the order of Melchizedek" (Heb 7:15-17). Jesus is both priest (Heb 4:14) and king (Jn 18:37). He is also the true King of Righteousness (Rev 19:11) and Prince of Peace (Is 9:6). He is the eternal Son of God (Heb 7:3). For this reason, He is also greater than Abraham (Heb 7:6-10). His sacrifice involves bread and wine changed into His Body and Blood and offered in Jerusalem (Mk 14:12-25).

THE FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Since the Second Vatican Council, the Feast of Corpus Christi has been known as "The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ." The Feast arose in the thirteenth century in response to debates about the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "Christ is always present in his Church, especially in its liturgical celebrations. He is present in the sacrifice of the Mass, not only in the person of his minister... but especially under the Eucharistic elements... He is present in the sacraments ... He is present in his word... He is present, lastly, when the Church prays and sings".

CHURCH HISTORY

July 9th is the feast day of St. John Gorcum (d. 1572). The 4th double window on the north wall of the church honors St. John Gorcum's martyrdom. St. John of Gorcum was hanged by militant Calvinists in Holland for defending the church's teaching.
