

ST. DOMINIC CATHOLIC CHURCH

Serving Southwest Washington since 1852

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 23, 2020

Jesus said,
“I say to you, you are Peter,
and upon this rock
I will build my church,
and the gates
of the netherworld
shall not prevail
against it.”

Matthew 16:18

PLEASE WELCOME FR. BRUNO M. SHAH, OP

Greetings everyone of St. Dominic: I'm excited to be here!

Permit me to share some things about myself. And know that I am eager to meet you and serve you.

I grew up in New York. I have one younger brother who still lives in the City. We were raised Protestant. My parents emphasized prayer, reading the Bible, and education. None of it took with me... but midway through college, I had something of a conversion experience, spurred by an attraction to the monastic life and gripped by the idea that God both gives all and asks for all. I was baptized through the RCIA in 1997. My parents came in a couple of years later. I am so grateful to God for them.

I taught high school for a few years in lower Manhattan before joining the Dominicans. I was ordained a priest in 2009 at this church of St. Dominic, which is partly why it is such a joy for me to be assigned here.

Please pray for me as I have started to do for you. Let us strive to "put on the Lord Jesus Christ" and "walk by the Spirit" (Rom 13.14, Gal 5.16) and all manner of things shall be well!

Peace,

Fr. Bruno M. Shah, OP

Fr. Bruno will assist Fr. Jordan and Fr. Bede in the parish!

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Eliakim is destined by God to be a father to those who live in Jerusalem (Isaiah 22:19-23).

Psalm — Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands (Psalm 138).

Second Reading — How deep are the riches and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! (Romans 11:33-36).

Gospel — Jesus asked the disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Christ" (Matthew 16:13-20).

TRUST

Keys hold great significance for those who carry them. They represent the trust and authority of the owner when given to another person. We may give our house key to a trusted friend to take care of our matters while we are away. We may give keys to someone responsible for maintaining or working in a particular building. Keys to vehicles are given to people who have proven themselves responsible drivers. The readings today focus on this kind of trust—the trust that conveys authority and responsibility. In the first reading, the symbol is specifically that of a key; but the second reading and the Gospel also speak of trust and leadership as they refer to the earthly church that Jesus established.
