PASTOR'S CORNER

In the second reading for the Mass today, St. Paul quotes the Old Testament teaching, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Doing so is the fulfillment of the law. Such is the life of being disciples of the Lord Jesus, living in the grace of the Holy Spirit and manifesting the Kingdom of God in our world. The world has witnessed the practical expression of love in the wake of Hurricane Harvey. Thousands of people have extended helping hands and resources to the people affected by the storm. Here in our own parish, the collection last weekend for the victims of Hurricane Harvey netted just over $2,000 – a very generous contribution and reflection of love and compassion for the needy. Thank you to all who supported this collection. You may still give through Faith Direct; or by indicating "Hurricane Harvey" on the memo line of your check. And, with Hurricane Irma bearing down on South Florida, we may be asked to help once again as natural devastation wreaks havoc in the lives of so many people.

Another expression of love is found in the concern we have for someone's salvation. The prophet Ezekiel and Jesus today remind us of the responsibility we have to "warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way" (Ez 33:9). Pope Francis can help us understand how this is done: "Fraternal correction is a mark of the love and communion which must reign in the Christian community; it is, rather, a mutual service that we can and must render to one another. To reprove a brother is a service, and it is possible and effective only if each one recognizes oneself to be a sinner and in need of the Lord's forgiveness. The same awareness that enables me to recognize the fault of another, even before that, reminds me that I have likewise made mistakes and I am often wrong."

The love of God has been poured into our hearts – first as mercy and then as generosity. May the Holy Spirit guide, inspire and empower our expression of love in meeting the material and spiritual needs of our brothers and sisters – close to home and parish; and far away.

Let us pray for one another,
Fr. Schommer, O.P.

STATEMENT FROM CARDINAL WUERL ON DACA

"I fully support and echo the statement made by my brother bishops of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. I find it very regrettable and harmful that the Trump Administration made the decision to end the DACA program in its current form. I join those who urge that Congress moves swiftly on a permanent solution that ensures these young people can remain in the only homeland they have ever known."

RCIA (RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS)

Do you know someone who is interested, or might be open, to becoming Catholic? Or, do you know someone who hasn't received Confirmation or First Communion? R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is for these persons. RCIA is a grace-filled journey which begins with a period of initial inquiry followed by a guided initiation into the fullness of our Christian and Catholic Faith. Classes begin Monday evening, September 11, from 7:00 p.m.- 8:30 p.m. in our parish meeting room. Please encourage anyone who may be interested to contact Fr. Hyacinth at vicar@stdominicchurch.org

COMMISSIONING CEREMONY NEXT WEEKEND

As recommended by the Archdiocese of Washington, our parish "commissions" the service of all staff and volunteers with a formal "commissioning ceremony" each year. This year, the commissioning ceremony (ies) are scheduled at each of the weekend Masses (16-17 September); and will also take place the 8:00 Mass on Monday 18 September and the 12:10 Mass on Friday 22 September.

Those to be commissioned are all lay liturgical ministers, Parish Council members and Finance Council members. Although you are strongly encouraged to attend and participate you are not required to do so. You are commissioned by virtue of the priest's intention even if you do not attend. The commissioning ceremony is simply a method for our parish to acknowledge and demonstrate appreciation for the service of our parish volunteers and staff members. Please make every effort to attend.

PARISH LAY MINISTRY: CALLING ALL SINGERS!

During the summer, as is common across cultures and nations, many take well-deserved time-off from work and other activities. We are grateful for all our parish volunteers (Ushers, Acolytes, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors and Music Ministers) who volunteer year-round — and those who "filled the vacancies" of those who were/are away. We pray all have safe travels, and return renewed as summer comes to its end.

We actively seek new members of the parish to volunteer and to serve as Lay Ministers of the Mass. Perhaps now is a great time for you to volunteer. Please contact the Parish Liturgical Ministries Coordinator (JC Cantrell) for more information regarding training and serving as a Lay Minister of the Mass.

ATTENTION WEEKDAY AND WEEKEND ACOLYTES, LECTORS, USHERS, AND EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Blessings to all who serve St Dominic Parish as a staff member, a Lay Minister of the Mass (Acolyte, EMHC (Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion), Lector, Music Minister, Usher) or who volunteer in other areas/programs of parish life.

As recommended by the Archdiocese of Washington, our parish "commissions" the service of all staff and volunteers with a formal "commissioning ceremony" each year. Our parish commissioning ceremony (ies) are scheduled as follows:

- At each of the weekend Masses (16-17 September);
- 8:00 Mass on Monday 18 September;
- and the 12:10 Mass on Friday 22 September.

NEW HYMNAL FOR THE PARISH

In collaboration with the Parish Pastoral Council, Finance Council, and the Director of Music, we have decided to acquire the St. Michael Hymnal for our parish. The St. Michael Hymnal will give our worshipping community a high-quality, durable resource to unite our voices in praise and worship of our God. Please consider making a one-time donation for one or more hymnals so that the parishioners and guests of our parish may grow closer to the Lord through music. Remember, St. Augustine once said that "he who sings, prays twice."

For each $20 donation, which purchases one hymnal, we would be happy to memorialize the hymnal by means of a memorial plate (a printed "label" inside the hymnal.) A large poster with samples of the memorial plate is located at the center-aisle entrance of the church. There, you will find envelopes for your donation. Please put the donation envelope in the regular collection basket; or deliver it to the parish office. Thank you for your support of this project!

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMUNITY SERVICES

So Others Might Eat: Our next SOME meal will be Saturday, September 30th. Baking pans and recipes are in the main vestibule. For more information, please contact social@stdominicchurch.org.

Annual Coats for Kids Giveaway: It's still hot outside, but it is time to think about our annual Coats for Kids giveaway. $20 buys a new warm coat for a child in need. Please make your check out to St. Dominic Church and write "Coats for Kids" in the subject line. You may also donate through faithdirect.net.

We will also accept donations of scarves, hats and mittens. If you are knitting or crocheting scarves at home, they should be at least 36" by 6". Please contact social@stdominicchurch.org if you have any questions.

Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center: Thank you for your donation of practical items for the Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!

God Bless You,
