PASTOR'S CORNER

Death. The Book of Wisdom teaches us that "God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living.

For he fashioned all things that they might have being" (1:13-14a). Yet, death comes to us all because of Original Sin. None of us can escape it.

Through the first reading and the Gospel reading for today, we learn that God's power is greater than the power of death. The prophet Elijah prays to God for the return of the life breath to the child. Jesus, without being asked but moved with pity, approaches the funeral procession, touches the coffin and calls the dead man back to life. These two events foreshadow the supreme revelation of God's power over death through the resurrection of his Son. Rising from the dead, Jesus conquers the power of death and gives humanity the hope of eternal life.

We who believe in Jesus live with this hope. We believe that death brings a change in life, not the end of it. We believe that when our earthly dwelling lies in death we gain an everlasting dwelling place in heaven. Hence, it is this faith of ours that sustains us in our grief and mourning. The hope that we possess is a light that guides us through the range of emotions and confusion.

Preparing for death with the gift of faith is part and parcel of the Christian life. "The Church encourages us to prepare ourselves for the hour of our death. In the ancient litany of the saints, for instance, she has us pray: 'From a sudden and unforeseen death, deliver us, O Lord;' to ask the Mother of God to intercede for us 'at the hour of our death' in the Hail Mary; and to entrust ourselves to St. Joseph, the patron of a happy death" (CCC 1014).

In death, God calls us to himself. He calls us into eternal life with him. Faith in the resurrection of Jesus and confidence in his power over death will enable us to have a proper desire for death so that we can be with the Lord. In him, all is made new and we live forever.

This coming Friday, the liturgical calendar draws our attention to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is centuries old and the presence of this devotion in our parish is reflected in the central stained-glass window in the apse of the church. The representation of the physical, human heart of Jesus is a powerful reminder of the divine love of God for every person. The Sacred Heart is often depicted in Christian art as a flaming heart shining with divine light, pierced by the lance-wound, encircled by the crown of thorns, surmounted by a cross, and bleeding. Sometimes the image is shown shining within the bosom of Christ with his wounded hands pointing at the heart. The wounds and crown of thorns allude to the manner of Jesus' death, while the fire represents the transformative power of divine love.

In this Year of Mercy, renewing our personal devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus enables us to encounter God—who is love. In this love, we are brought into the fullness of life because we are united with Him.

Let us pray for one another,

Fr. Schommer, O.P.

FAITH & EARTH

BE PREPARED TO HAVE YOUR WORLD
TURNED RIGHT SIDE UP!

Join us for a 10-film documentary discussion series on faith and the environment led by Fr. Hyacinth Cordell, OP. Each night we will watch a film about a particular environmental issue. After the film, we will discuss the film and how faith and virtue apply. Connections will also be made between the particular issues highlighted and Pope Francis' encyclical on the environment, Laudato Si'. Vegetarian refreshments will be provided. The series will be on the following Sunday evenings between 6:30 p.m.- 8:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall at St. Dominic Church, 630 E Street, SW Washington, DC 20024 (L'Enfant Plaza metro stop):

JUBILEE REFLECTION— TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Comfort the Afflicted: "When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. Jesus wept" (Jn 11:32-33, 35). When we see someone afflicted, what can we do for them? Jesus encounters and consoles Mary by sharing in her grief. Sometimes, Jesus is reminding us, the best comfort is to sit with them and cry. We don't have power over death as Jesus did, yet like him we can still comfort with our presence and prayers, and trust in the power of the ultimate Comforter, the Holy Spirit. Learn more about the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy at mercy.adw.org.

WORSHIP

We are blessed by the presence of many visitors and guests each week. Out of solemn respect for the Mass, we follow the custom of remaining at our places within the church until the conclusion of the Song for Sending Forth (recessional).

Please silence your cell phone: As an overt act of courtesy (and respect for the prayer of all), please remember to silence/ turn off your cell phone when you arrive in the church.

Sung Mass Responses: Our community's sung and spoken response during the ritual prayers of the liturgy is a core element of communal prayer. The Gloria is sung at all weekend masses and may be found on page 6 of the insert attached to the inside front cover of the Breaking Bread Book. The remaining sung mass parts (Community Mass also composed by Proulx) can be found sequentially starting on page 10.

FAITH DIRECT

Did you know that June 20 – the first day of summer – is National eGiving Day?

St. Dominic Church can take particular joy in this celebration, as the response to eGiving in our church has been wonderful.

To build on this success, I am setting a National eGiving Day Challenge. My goal is for St. Dominic Church families to put envelopes on a permanent summer vacation and make the switch to eGiving. This is especially important in the summer months, when many families may be out of town some weekends and St. Dominic Church does not receive their envelopes. It's easy for people to forget to catch up once they're back, and our weekly offertory can fluctuate as a result – making it harder to predict how much we will have to sustain our year-round ministries.

The more families who welcome the beginning of summer by taking this National eGiving Day Challenge, the more consistency and predictable our offertory will be month after month – and this will help us do even more to spread Christ's love throughout the community.

Being part of this challenge is simple: Visit www.faithdirect.net and use our church code: DC117

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family with your time and talents as well as treasure!

God Bless You,
Fr. Schommer, O.P.
